Due Diligence Processes

- Enforce stringent procurement practices to ensure compliance with relevant laws and standards, including the Modern Slavery Act.
- Request clients and suppliers to maintain robust anti-slavery and human trafficking policies, extending these to their own supply chains.
- Exclusively source goods from approved and affiliated distribution channels.
- Conduct regular audits of policies and practices to assess effectiveness and identify areas for improvement.
- Implement measures to identify, assess, and mitigate potential risks of slavery and human trafficking in operations and supply chain.
- Provide adequate protection for whistleblowers reporting suspected instances of slavery or human trafficking.
- This statement is issued in compliance with section 54(1) of the Modern Slavery Act 2015, serving as BJ's Bouncy Castles Limited's slavery and human trafficking statement for the financial year ending 31/03/25
